

FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED AWARDS IN TEACHING SHORT-TERM PROGRAM FOR U.S. TEACHERS

Short-term overseas consultancies for K-12 educators.

The Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Short-Term Program for U.S. Teachers (Fulbright DAST) provides an opportunity for outstanding elementary, middle, and high school teachers from the United States to take part in a two to six-week professional development experience abroad. Teachers will have the opportunity to share their educational expertise on this program by serving in their role consulting with and providing support for schools, non-profit organizations, teacher training institutions and other educational organizations abroad.

Apply by May 6, 2019 by visiting www.irex.org/fulbright-dast.

How does Fulbright DAST improve classrooms, schools, and communities?

About the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State fosters mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries around the world. ECA strives to achieve this goal through a wide range of international exchanges as authorized by the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, as amended. ECA works in close cooperation with U.S. Embassies and bilateral Fulbright Commissions overseas to promote personal, professional, and institutional ties between private citizens and organizations in the United States and abroad.

About IREX

IREX is a global development and education nonprofit organization whose mission is to build a more just, prosperous, and inclusive world by empowering youth, cultivating leaders, strengthening institutions, and extending access to quality education and opportunity. The U.S. Department of State awarded IREX a grant to implement this program on its behalf.
